Chapter 5

Hamlet by William Shakespeare

Hamlet is Prince of Denmark. His father, the king, has died. His uncle has married his mother and become the new king.

Macbeth by William Shakespeare

One day three witches tell Macbeth that he will be king.

But Duncan is already king of Scotland. Lady Macbeth (Macbeth's wife) really, really wants to be queen.

Macbeth kills King Duncan and blames the guards. Macbeth becomes king of Scotland.

The witches also told Banquo that his sons would be kings. Macbeth is not keen on that. He sends three men to kill Banquo.

Macbeth wants to have a party. But there's a surprise guest!

Macbeth gets very nervous. He returns to the witches to find out what's happening.

The enemies of Macbeth raise an army against him.

Macbeth regrets what he's done and gets very sad. But he still feels safe.

The army uses boughs from the trees as camouflage. The forest is moving!

Macbeth is killed and later the children and grandchildren of Banquo become kings of Scotland.
